January 2nd Meeting Topic:
Third-Party Safety Consultants May be Liable Under New Ruling

For the first time, a California appellate court has applied the common law theory of negligent undertaking to a safety consultancy, allowing the parents of a deceased employee to sue a third party safety consultant. The appellate court reversed summary judgment in favor of the consultant and remanded the lawsuit back to the Superior Court. David will help us understand what all this means!

BCSP released the CHST4 on November 26, 2018.

Bakersfield Chapter Membership Drawing

Each year the ASSP Bakersfield Chapter holds an End of Year Membership Drawing. The goals of this drawing are:

1. To provide a benefit to Bakersfield Chapter membership.
2. To encourage members to attend Bakersfield Chapter monthly meetings.

How does it work? For each meeting a Bakersfield Chapter Member attends, a chance is added to the drawing pool (e.g. attend 12 chapter meetings as a chapter member = 12 chances in the pool).

An Awards and Honors Committee representative will use member names present on the 12 Membership Update Reports to establish the drawing pool.

What is the giveaway? The intent is to provide a one-time reimbursement for a “Weekend Get Away of Travel” for $500.

And the Winner is...

The U.S. Department of Labor’s Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) has issued a proposed rule to revise the beryllium standard for general industry. The proposed changes are designed to clarify the standard, and to simplify or improve compliance with the standard.

The proposed rule would amend selected paragraphs of the standard, including “Definitions,” “Methods of Compliance,” “Personal Protective Clothing and Equipment,” “Hygiene Areas and Practices,” “Housekeeping,” “Medical Surveillance,” “Hazard Communication,” and “Recordkeeping.” It would also remove the existing Appendix A, which lists suggested controls, and replace it with a new Appendix A, Operations for Establishing Beryllium Work Areas.

Comments, hearing requests, and other information must be submitted electronically at http://www.regulations.gov, the Federal eRulemaking Portal, or by facsimile or mail. Read the Federal Register notice for submission details. Comments must be submitted by February 9, 2019. The enforcement date for the provisions affected by this proposal was December 12, 2018. While this rulemaking is pending, compliance with the standard as modified by this proposal will be accepted as compliance.

The proposal satisfies a settlement agreement with stakeholders that had concerns about some of the provisions in the 2017 beryllium final rule. The proposed rule would affect approximately 50,500 workers employed in general industry, and is estimated to yield minor net cost savings to employers. OSHA expects the proposed changes would provide employees with equivalent safety and health protections to the current standard.

Under the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970, employers are responsible for providing safe and healthful workplaces for their employees. OSHA’s role is to help ensure these conditions for America’s working men and women by setting and enforcing standards and providing training, education and assistance. For more information, visit www.osha.gov.
