Common Membership Questions

1. Do I have to be an engineer to join ASSE?
   A better name for the organization would probably be the American Society of EHS Professionals.
   Answer: No

2. Do I have to be a “full time” safety pro or be "certified" to be eligible for membership in ASSE?
   There are different categories of membership.
   Answer: No

3. What’s the next step for becoming a member? Complete a Membership App or on-line App- www.asse.org

Students! On-Line Membership only $15/yr http://www.asse.org/asse-student-membership-application/

Congratulations for successfully advancing your professional development!

Lucas Kumpe with American Incorporated recently completed the requirements to become an Occupational Health and Safety Technologist® (OHST)

Let us know about your professional development successes!

December 7, 7:00 - 8:45 AM at Hodels restaurant

Topic: Holiday Crime and Ongoing Scam’s (that we should be aware of)!

Speaker: Edwina Tripp, Community Relations Specialist, Bakersfield Police

January 4, 7:00 - 8:45 AM at Hodels restaurant

Topic: California Regulatory update for Crane Operations

California has adopted new regulations for crane operations, including having a Lift Director for critical lifts and similar high risk crane activities. Learn how these regulations help companies reduce risk for crane operations.

Speaker: Richard (Dick) Thompson, CSP
Manager of California Affairs/Technical Coordinator
National Commission for the Certification of Crane Operators (NCCCO)

Dick is a veteran of 48 years in the construction industry, with a safety and risk management record spanning three decades. He has worked throughout California and the western U.S. liaising closely with all operational levels to manage effective safety programs to identify and mitigate hazards in heavy construction and mining environments.

He is a Certified Safety Professional (CSP), a CCO-certified crane operator (TSS and TLL), CCO-Certified Rigger Level I and II and Signalperson, Class A Driver, as well as an OSHA 10- and 30-Hour Instructor, and he was recently appointed to California’s Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board Advisory Committee tasked with consolidating the state’s crane safety orders.

Dick is also NCCCO’s primary point of contact with California employers, industry groups and state jurisdictions such as Cal-OSHA.

February 1, 7:00 - 8:45 AM at Hodels restaurant

Topic: California Employment Law Update

Speaker: Daniel K. Klingenerberger, LeBeau-Thelen, LLP

Mr. Klingenerberger has nearly 30 years of experience representing large and small companies in all forms of employment litigation, including wrongful termination, sexual harassment, class action, wage and hour violations, unfair competition/trade secret issues and many forms of discrimination. He also works with employers on union/management issues, including union organizing, picketing and work stoppages. He represents employers in collective bargaining negotiations and labor arbitrations involving employee discipline and contractual disputes. Dan graduated from the McGeorge School of Law in 1986. Mr. Klingenerberger joined LeBeau-Thelen, LLP in late 2014.
